CLOSED DUE TO VIRUS RESTRICTIONS

What happens if we must reschedule? We move you to the new date. If rescheduling is not an option for clients I've already booked I will return half your fees. My standards are extremely high I am committed to your day being amazing and will do everything in my power to make that happen.

At this moment gatherings are limited to 25 people. As things unfold, they may be banned all together. All restaurants and venues are closing.

I spoke to the Courthouse in Baltimore. They are closed to the public, and they may start sending Licensing staff home although for now they are there. If this happens your license to be married would not be processed. Therefore, the marriage would remain unrecognized legally until such time as they reopen.

Abiding Love Weddings is now closed until this crisis is past us. I will not be taking any new clients effective today 3/16/2020.

Be safe and be blessed

Sincerely

Rev Robin Hannon
